Description

Handyman's special! This 3000 square foot home has so much potential and needs someone to come in and finish the remodel that a previous owner started. The main floor combines open living spaces, the character and charm of the original home as well as some updates. The living room and a landing room upstairs could also be used as office spaces, additional family rooms or even some more bedrooms. If you are looking for a fixer upper or an investment--this is it! Other #1 is a room at top of the stairs off the master bedroom. This home is sold "as-is" Central Air upstairs only.
